Prize-Winning Innovation

Recognising and rewarding the products and technological innovations influencing and shaping the industry, the IFSEC 2008 Security Industry Awards celebrate the very best in the security market

Trophies will be presented to the winners in the seven categories who have showcased the very best solutions and initiatives in product innovation, installation and guarding at Rouge - Opening Night Party with Awards Reception.

Fun and Frolics in an Extravagant Setting

The security industry will be celebrating in spectacular fashion at Rouge - Opening Night Party with Awards Reception brought to you by IFSEC 2008. Guests will be transported back to 18th Century Paris, for an evening of Moulin Rouge-themed fun with superb food and dazzling entertainment. And with a truly international theme running throughout the night, you can be sure of entertaining clients and colleagues alike in breathtaking style. With an exciting rebrand and new format, this amazing event will attract over 700 of the world's most powerful security professionals from leading manufacturers, distributors and re-sellers, to influential integrators, installers and end users.

Ticket Bookings

Whether you're looking to network and socialise with the key players in the industry, use the evening as a motivational "thank you" to your teams or are simply looking for a fantastic night out, there is no better place to commemorate the opening night of IFSEC than at Rouge - Opening Night Party with Awards Reception. If you're in security, you don't want to miss this incredible event. Places are limited and sold on a strictly first come first served basis.

The evening will commence with a champagne and canapés reception which will be followed by the Awards presentation. Guests will then be able to wander around the food zones and enjoy the international buffet. There will be a variety of music, entertainment and games for guests to enjoy throughout the night as well as a cabaret lounge open until the early hours. We guarantee a fantastic night for all who attend.
